

retroactively. That is against the U.S. Constitution. It can only be made to apply prospectively. So my amendment, and I remind you again we are talking only about my amendment, the criminal law on adultery, my amendment would only apply in the future, prospectively, not retroactively. You can't...

SENATOR HIGGINS: And your amendment does what again?

SENATOR DECAMP: Simply repeals the existing criminal laws on the books on adultery, adultery being a married individual having relations with another person, not their mate.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Gee, Senator DeCamp, you'll be the first one to repeal one of the Ten Commandments. Thank you, Senator.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on the DeCamp amendment? If not, the motion is to adopt the DeCamp amendment to LB 877. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. The motion is the adoption of an amendment offered by Senator DeCamp to LB 877. Please record your vote. The Chair will allow 20 seconds for the recording of your vote. The motion is to adopt the amendment by Senator DeCamp to LB 877. Fifteen seconds to record your vote. Five seconds to record your vote. What do you want to do, Senator DeCamp? Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President, I would request a call of the house.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator. Call of the house has been requested. The question before you now, shall the house come under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Motion is for a call of the house. Record your vote. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 9 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries, the house is under call. All members of the Legislature, please return to the Legislative Chamber. The house is under call. Members in the Legislative Chamber, please look up to the front board and see that your green presence light is indicated. Members outside the Chamber, please return, the house is